

Reckitt Global Hygiene Institute Overarching Compliance Policy

Policy Number: P300

Article I. RGHI Policy Statement

Section 1.01 The Reckitt Global Hygiene Institute (RGHI) is a global, independent, scientific research and innovation hub that bridges epidemiology, public health policy, and behavior insights. The RGHI exists to champion hygiene as the foundation of health and promote behavior change around the world. Our mission is to generate practical, high-quality scientific research and behavioral insights that will lead to the adoption of global sustainable hygienic practices and achieve enduring behavior change.

Section 1.02 RGHI compliance policies and procedures ensure that all projects are conducted with the highest ethical standards. Applicants, Grantees and Fellows must comply with our grant and fellowship funding conditions and policies and must read these policies in conjunction with their contract and award letter. Every researcher, Universities and organization have an obligation to become familiar with, and abide by, the provisions of these policies. Policies and procedures are enforceable by applicable county, state, federal laws, and/or regulations.

Article II. Policy Documentation

The Executive Director is responsible for ensuring implementation of these policies.

The Board of Directors of RGHI adopts the following policies in order to strengthen its existing policies and procedures, maintain and exemplify “best practices,” and comply with applicable laws and regulations on August 1, 2021.
